Please make sure your financial advisors know that you do not want your gifts to be anonymous – unless you truly do. And please know that we do not know if a gift is from you if you've told your advisor to keep the gift anonymous or haven't given them express permission to give us your name and contact information in conjunction with each gift. You may not need for us to thank you – but we won't even be able to credit you, without knowing the gift is from you!
